

As an individual who does a lot of regional travel, I enjoy being able to travel to different cities and obtain instant, local road and weather information. Satellite is the "broadband" of radio, and the future is here -it should not be hindred!